

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, MAY 25, 1901.

No. 21

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. E. S. Miller is in Phoenix this week.

School supplies of all kinds at Timerhoff's.

J. C. Phelan of Williams is at the Weatherford.

A line of fine writing tablets and papreties at Timerhoff's.

J. B. Jones, county assessor, was a visitor at the county seat yesterday.

The best pure sap maple syrup to be found at P. R. Weatherford & Co.'s.

Born—In Flagstaff, May 25, 1901, to the wife of Robert J. Kidd, a daughter.

For Sale at a Bargain—One Remington type writer; good as new; at Racket Store.

P. R. Weatherford & Co., have just received a car of the celebrated Club House Flour.

C. E. Boyce, the proprietor of the Grand Canyon hotel at Williams, was here Monday.

For Sale—A nice marble-top walnut suit and other pieces of furniture. Apply to W. H. Russell.

L. D. Yeager returned from Phoenix last week and his sheep are now grazing in Coconino county.

Mrs. N. A. Cameron and son Harry returned yesterday from a three months visit with relatives in Chicago.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Wanted—Teams to haul logs and lumber. For particulars address the J. M. Dennis Lumber Company, Rhoades, Arizona.

We have the goods right with us; we cut and fit your clothes right here and make you a good suit for $12.50. Faust, the tailor, next to Racket store.

T. A. Riordan and daughter, Miss Marie Riordan, returned from San Francisco last Thursday, where they witnessed the launching of the battleship Ohio.

For Sale—Hoosier grain drill, 6-inch hoe, in first-class condition. Price reasonable. Drill may be seen at my ranch, three miles north of town. W. H. Anderson.

Marshal Bayless raided a hop joint on the south side early in the week and arrested a quartet of Celestials who were hitting the pipe in regulation Oriental manner.

Hon. Kean St. Charles of Kingman was a visitor here yesterday. He was on his return from Albuquerque, N. M. Mr. St. Charles is the editor of the Mineral Wealth. He was a leading figure in the last Arizona legislature and made his influence felt in that body. He owns valuable mining property in Mohave county.

E. E. Ellinwood this week circulated a petition which was signed by every member of the bar of Coconino county endorsing the present judiciary of Arizona for reappointment to their present position. It speaks well of the present justices of the supreme court when they receive the endorsement of the entire bar of Arizona for reappointment.

Typewriter papers in various weights at Timerhoff's.

When you want the best goods for the least money buy of P. R. Weatherford & Co.

J. M. Dennis of the Dennis Lumber Company of Rhoades was in town Wednesday.

Night Watchman Al Doyle has been diligently watching the trains for suspicious characters.

Mr. Louis Metzger, a horse doctor, from Las Vegas, N. M., struck the town accidentally this week.

Mr. Fred Simon of Louisville was selling Kentucky disturbance to the cafes and saloons during the week.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

John Baker left to-day for Dawson, Alaska, where he has accepted a position with a prominent business house of that city.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

The town council has passed another license ordinance. It interests every business man in Flagstaff and is published in this issue of the SUN.

The Order of the Eastern Star has changed the date of its box social from Saturday night, May 25, to Friday night, May 31. The social will be held in the Masonic Hall.

The New Bank hotel has been re-furnished and is now open to the public. Mrs. F. T. McMillan is the new manager, and will for the present run the hotel on the European plan.

H. H. Hoxworth and family returned Friday from Agua Caliente. Mr. Hoxworth, together with other Flagstaff people, are interested in some valuable copper properties near that place.

The Normal school was visited yesterday by Percival Lowell, A. E. Douglass, Miss Lenard and E. S. Manson of the Lowell observatory. Mr. Lowell made a short, interesting talk to the students.

Gen. M. H. Sherman and Robert Sherman of Los Angeles were here Monday. During their stay here they were the guests of F. W. Sisson. Mr. Sherman is a prominent California banker and interested in street railways in Los Angeles and Phoenix.

The pupils of the School of the Nativity had a regular old-fashioned picnic at the reservoir on Thursday. Elaborate preparations were made for the enjoyment of the scholars. Hammocks, swings and all kinds of out-door games were placed at the disposal of those attending, which included many of the parents, guardians and the Sisters of Loretto.

A child living with Claude Emerton and wife undertook to drive a horse away from a sack of oats Thursday and was kicked in the face, fracturing the lower jaw and knocking all the upper teeth out. Dr. Robinson administered the anaesthetic, while Dr. Brannen performed a very neat operation, removing the broken particles of bone, stitching an ugly cut from the ear to the opposite point of the jawbone, and placing the injured member in splints. The little patient is doing well and will recover.

Mrs. J. L. Treat is in from Greenlaw's mill to-day.

See prices on shoes at Weatherford & Co., before buying elsewhere.

It keeps them well and makes them lay—Timerhoff's poultry powder.

L. A. Sawyer, representing Chicago embalmed beef, was here on Friday.

S. E. Busser, manager of the Santa Fe railroad reading rooms, spent Friday here.

If you want a good trunk for a small amount of money call on P. R. Weatherford & Co.

D. M. True, of Los Angeles, registered his true name at the Weatherford on Thursday.

J. R. Teasdale, representing the famous Hamilton-Brown Shoe company was at the Weatherford yesterday.

Mrs. Isaac Pearl, of Milton, is critically ill. Dr. Brannen reports a slight improvement in her condition to-day.

J. C. Phelan, the Williams vender of Grand canyon spring lamb, paid Flagstaff a flying visit the latter part of the week.

Chas. Canall was a guest at the Commercial during the week. He reports his telephone enterprise progressing favorably.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Mrs. F. W. Sisson is entertaining the Senior class of the Northern Normal, picnicking at the Doney cliff and cave dwellings to-day.

Jose Chaves returned today from Salt river valley where he has been during the winter, in charge of a band of Lockett Bros.' sheep.

You will have to hurry if you want a suit made to order for $12.50 up. Orders taken until Monday noon. Faust, the tailor, next to Racket store.

Harry C. Hibben left this morning for Prescott. Mr. Hibben is an expert bookkeeper and goes to that place to expert the books of George Sturdevant the water works contractor.

E. H. Perkins and wife were visiting the family of E. S. Gosney this week. Mr. Perkins is a prominent civil engineer and mineralogist of Utah and Wyoming, and is looking over Arizona with a view of locating in the territory.

F. B. Jacobs of Maricopa county and Mrs. Johnette Oriena Youree of Tennessee were married at the Hotel Weatherford on Thursday, Rev. J. H. Henry officiating. The bride came from her southern home and was met here by the groom. The latter was formerly a resident of Flagstaff and a surveyor by profession. The happy pair left yesterday for Phoenix, where they will reside.

Prof. B. R. Baumgardt, of Los Angeles and secretary of the Southern California Academy of Science, will deliver a lecture under the auspices of the University Extension Association on Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock. His subject will be "An Evening with the Stars." This lecture is an interesting and instructive one and also the last of the association course, it should not be missed. Admission free. The lecture will be entirely appropriate for a Sunday evening educational entertainment.

Timerhoff's poultry powder cures chicken cholera.

Dr. W. S. Robinson has moved his office to rooms over the postoffice.

Louis Tiger, of New York, was here on Wednesday, all but the stripes.

For Sale—Large hotel range with large pressure boiler and fixtures. Apply at this office.

Ben. Marburg, of Denver, Colorado, placed his John Hancock on the register of the Hotel Weatherford.

From present indications the banks of Oak Creek will be lined next Saturday with fishermen from Flagstaff.

H. C. Lockett, H. L. Ring and N. N. Nay, arrived from Phoenix, via. wagon, to-day. They were six days making the trip.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

Suits to order $12.50 up. We cut and fit them to you right here. Orders taken until Monday noon. Faust, the tailor, next to Racket store.

The SUN has suffered no eclipse, but on the contrary it is shining more brightly than ever. Thirty-one new names on the mailing list this week.

Senor Jose Armendarez and Senorita Anastacia Salazar will be united in the bonds of wedlock next Monday. Mr. and Mrs. S. Barron will be best man and bridesmaid respectively.

Some very new wedding invitations were printed in the job department of the SUN for the nuptials of Francisco Padiilo and Miss Sofia Garcia, which takes place at the Catholic church next Wednesday.

Does your collar pinch your neck? If it does, it is not buttoned to a Keller Made Shirt. Order a sample set of three shirts from these popular shirt makers and know the comfort of a perfect fit. Keller's man will visit Flagstaff every sixty days.

For Rent—On July 1, 1901, brick building on the corner of Railroad avenue and Leroux street. Good frost-proof cellar 25x60 feet, store room 50x60 feet, second story 25x60 feet. Water and sewer connections. Best location in town. For particulars apply to Julius Aubineau, Flagstaff, Arizona.

Through the carelessness of some children who built an embryonic bonfire last Wednesday, a coal shed belonging to A. T. Cornish, in which was stored considerable furniture, was consumed. The loss was $250. Both the Pioneer and Nevin hose companies responded promptly, the former getting there first.

Capt. Jack Crawford. Who can describe him? As an entertainer he stands at the head on the American platform for variety and uniqueness. At Flagstaff he talked for two hours and kept his audience interested every minute of the time. Now the people were convulsed with laughter; now they were thrilled with some eloquent description as majestic as Niagara; now their hearts heaved with emotion as he related some pathetic incident of his experience; now they are lifted to a high altitude by his recital of an original poem rendered as he only can recite it. Here's to you, Captain Jack, and when you come back you will get a royal reception.